SUMMER CLAY CLASSES FOR KIDS!

Shiloh Pottery will be offering Clay Classes for Kids again this summer.

Classes will be held in the mornings during the week of June 25 to 29.

Note: this is earlier than we usually offer our summer classes.

9:00 AM to 10:30 AM: First Time Clay Artists

This class is for children, 1st grade or older, who have had little to no experience with clay. Children will be doing many exciting clay projects, such as coil pots, flower pots, log cabin birdhouses, creature sculptures, dishes, trivets, masks, slab pots, cups or bowls, wind chimes and/or piggy banks. Each child will get to “throw” on the potter’s wheel, with assistance, at least once during each class. Children who have taken this class once, but would like to repeat it are encouraged to attend.

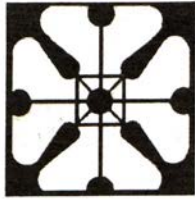

11:00 AM to 12:30 PM: Been There, Done That, But Like to Do It Again

This class is for children who have taken at least one clay class at Shiloh Pottery. Focus will be on more advanced projects.

Fees: Fees for each of the above classes is $125. $50 payable with registration, balance due first day of classes. Fee includes instruction, materials and firing.

Wheel Class for Older Clay Artists (Teens)

Each student will work on his or her own electric wheel with guidance from the instructor. Students need to have previous clay experience and be able to work independently. Fees: $25 per hour and half, includes clay and firing.
